

Family Matters

Family Service at TH Köln – University of Applied Sciences

TH Köln – University of Applied Sciences offers its students and staff a number of family-friendly services for a better compatibility of family and career, or studies.

Whether it's

- finding childcare services
- caring for family members
- structuring your working hours (for example, during parental leave) or
- studying as a parent

We will be happy to help you and provide the support you need.

- mobile toy boxes on the campus (at all sites)

Networking

We pride ourselves on being a family-friendly university. We are also a member of the nationwide Best Practice Club »Familie in der Hochschule«. The participating universities have committed themselves voluntarily to implement family-friendly structures and processes in the university.

The Family Service collaborates with in-house units, departments, university committees and university members to establish a family-friendly university culture at TH Köln.
