

Individual German Language Assistance

for doctoral researchers, postdocs and international scholars

You want to learn German, but cannot find the time to attend a language course?

You need advice on how to learn German individually and effectively or how to expand your language skills in German?

You want to improve your ability to communicate in German, prepare for specific situations and receive feedback on your communication?

You would like to work with a tutor who helps you with your questions and can give you tips for improving your German?

If so, you may be interested in our consultation hours for German as a foreign language, a cooperation between the Language Learning Center and the Graduate Center!

During the individually arranged appointments the following topics can be addressed:

- General advice on how to learn German
- Advice on how to improve your pronunciation
- Support with the use of online learning tools
- Support with writing German texts
- Consultation for oral communication at university and on the job (in preparation for presentations, interviews, conferences, ...)
- German language lessons individual or in small groups
- Any further questions you may have

Date and time: By appointment (upon availability)

Location: On campus (Deutz or Südstadt) or online via Zoom

Prerequisites: None, participants from level A1 to C2 are welcome
